Special Notices.

To the Mechanics and Workingmen of the State of New-York.—On behalf of the Journeymen Printers of New-York, the undersigned desire to return their thanks to help from Workingmen, not only of the craft, but also of ther industrial pursuits throughout the State, and to unite with them in congratulations at the signal defeat which the with them in Congramment of Mr. ERASTUS BROOKS have enconnered, in the election through which we have just passed.
Without reference to the political views professed by that peren at the present time, they feit called upon to invoke the sid of their fellows of the working classes generally to crush a harsh and unjust employer, and to teach him that an absence of tair fealing in private life and business relations was by no means a ready passport to public confidence and political honors. The esponse with which that appeal has been met is now a matter of history. Mr. Brooks has been overwhelmingly defeated, and to this result the Journeymen Printers, whom he had wronged and appressed, can claim to have in great degree conributed. The consignment to private life of this one man is of uself a matter of slight importance; but the wholesome lesson t will inculcate will not, we hope, be lost upon those who are unbitions of political distinction.

The undersigned Committee would also embrace this opportunity to acknowledge the receipt of a large number of ad-

The undersigned Committee would also embrace this opportunity to acknowledge the receipt of a large number of addresses and communications received by toem from associations, committees, etc., of different trades of working men in every portion of the State in response to the appeal issued by this Committee, and pledging that comperation which has since been so abundantly manifest fone shown in these communications, and the heariness with which their pledges have been redeemed, give evidence of what can be effected by a cordial amino among the industrial classes. On behalf of the Journeymen Frinters of New-York, we feel that we can promise to reciprorate the action of our friends of other trades, upon any fitting occasion when it shall be required of us.

HOD. GEO. BANCROFT, WM. C. BRYANT, eq., and others.
GENTLEMEN: I am very much honored by the highly complimentary call which you have made upon me to lecture before the people of New-York, and in gratefully complying with your wishes, I am far from insensible of the danger which it involves to myself, in being passed upon by so intelligent and critical a tribunal. My hestiation lessens, however, when I reflect that you invite me to speak of my native region in respect to which trust, it shall be able to disabuse the public of the North eff many mistaken impressions which do us wrong. You will, I trust, it shall be able to disabuse the public of the North eff many mistaken impressions which do us wrong. You will, I doubt not be pleased if I shall succeed in this, since it is always grateful to the just and magnanimous nature to witness the ultimate ascendency of Truth. I propose, then, as my subjects: "South Carolina in the Revolution," a single lecture—" Marion, the Carolina in the Revolution," a single lecture—" Marion, the Carolina in the Revolution," a single lecture—" Marion, the Carolina in the Revolution," a single lecture—" Marion, the Carolina in the Revolution," a single lecture—" Marion, the Carolina in the Revolution," a single lecture—" Marion, the Carolina in the Revolution," a single lecture—" Marion, the Carolina in the Revolution," a single lecture—

VIOLET;

OR, THE CROSS AND THE CROWN,
From the elegant peu of the above taleuted and accomplished authoriss—a writer too well lipowen to fame to require any landatory introduction by us to the reading community.

Distinguished literary critics who have read the entire manuscript ceneur in pronouncing it far superior to any of her previous literary efforts—a work which would alone confer upon any writer high and enduring fame.

Her theme was most happily chosen, opening with a graphic and thrilling description of a wreaking scene on the coast of New-Jersey, in which all on shipboard were lost, save a sweet bake, found by the wreckers, tied into its betth, probably by a found mother's own hands, as the last and only hope of saving its life; the adoption of this child by the rough and semi-savage wreckers, and the extraorditary and eventful if e which she lived for many years, forms a tale which, for thrilling interest, has rarely been equaled, even by the genius of irving or Cooper. It will be comprased in one elegant library columns, or about 450 pages, price $1, with one would discount to the trade.

As the sale of this book will undoubtedly be very large, Booksellers are most respectfully, requested to roward us their or dera at an early date, so that we may be enabled to fill them, in tall, from the first edition, without disappointment or delay.

O U T! O U T! O U T PORTER'S SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION has not finally settled the question of SLAVERY, at least so as to make discussion useless; on the contrary.

Is now, more than ever, a subject of thought and of just apprehension. The interry of our country shows its influence upon the Government in all its departments; not less clearly and graphically does the work its effects upon religion, morals and manners.

show its effects upon relation, morals and manners.
The publishers small commond this powerful and brillians book to the attention of the reading public.
